License & Disclaimer

Quorva AI Content System

License

By purchasing this product, you receive a single-user, non-transferable license to use the prompts, templates, and materials included in this toolkit.

You may:

- Use every prompt, template, and workflow in this toolkit for your own business
- Use it for client work (agency use, freelance work, consulting)
- Customize and adapt the prompts for your specific needs
- Print copies for your own personal or business use

You may not:

- Resell, redistribute, or share this toolkit (in whole or in part) as your own product
- Upload this toolkit to any public marketplace, file-sharing site, or membership site
- Claim authorship of the original prompts, templates, or structure
- Use this toolkit to create a directly competing product for public sale

If you want to use this toolkit as the foundation for a product you sell to others, please reach out first — licensing for that use case is available separately.

Results Disclaimer

The time-saved estimates, engagement examples, and outcomes referenced throughout this toolkit are illustrative, not guaranteed. Results depend on your niche, audience, consistency, and how you apply these workflows. This toolkit provides a system and starting point — it does not guarantee specific engagement, follower growth, client results, or income.

AI Output Disclaimer

This toolkit is designed to be used with third-party AI tools (ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, or similar). These tools are not owned or operated by us, and their outputs can vary — even with the exact same prompt. Always review, fact-check, and personalize AI-generated content before publishing or sending it to a client. You are responsible for the final content you publish or send.

No Professional Advice

Nothing in this toolkit constitutes legal, financial, tax, or professional business advice. The client communication scripts (rate increases, contracts references, scope discussions, etc.) are general templates, not legal documents. For contracts, pricing structures, or legal agreements specific to your business, consult a qualified professional.

Third-Party Tools & Platforms

References to ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, Instagram, TikTok, LinkedIn, and other platforms are for instructional purposes only. This toolkit is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or sponsored by any of these companies. Platform features, algorithms, and best practices referenced in this toolkit may change over time.
